AMUSEMENTS

ALICE LAKE AT

THE BUTLER TODAY

"The Misfit Wife," which will be the attraction at the Butler today, serves to introduce Alice Lake in a role that's likely to have as wide appeal on the screen as "Peg O' My Heart" had on the stage. Katie Malloy is an awkward little laundress who loses her job because she burns a silk shirt and then takes up a career as a manicurist in a crude western hotel, only to be lifted through marriage into the heart of New York's smart set. And Katie Malloy, as played by Alice Lake, is one of the most captivating persons who ever appeared on the screen. She isn't a heroine of the screen so much as a heroine from real life. She makes you feel somehow that you've actually known Katie Malloy, and knowing her, she makes you love her. Her husband in the play, the dissolute son of a wealthy New York family, has been sent to Wyoming to lead the simple life. There he meets Katie and they are married. Back in New York Katie seems out of place and her struggle as a "misfit" are pathetically appealing and her final triumph in overcoming the resentment of his family at their wedding makes an entertaining story. Added to the feature, a Mack Sennett comedy, "My Goodness."

To further reduce the cost of living, we will open a Groceteria on the second floor to our store April 1, 1921. The same high standard lines of Groceries which we have always carried will be placed on display and all canned goods sold at a reduction of from two to five cents a can, this being made possible by the fact that there will be no clerks. The Groceries will be placed on convenient counters and shelves and plainly marked so that you may pick out your wants and pay the cashier as you leave. This plan has met with great success in many towns on the coast, and with the co-operation of our customers, we will be able to reduce the cost of living at least ten per cent further in this department. Positively no phone orders or deliveries made from this department.
